Murray Bridge Golf Club Women's Report 30th May

Maureen Edwards played her usual consistent game on Tuesday, coming in "square" to be the Overall Winner of the day's Par competition.

Losing on a count-back to Edwards, Liz Llewellyn showed some improvement playing a positive back nine and was the 1st Open Place-getter also finishing with an even card score.

Heather Fromm came in 3 down followed by Pat Ward with 4 down.

Bev Magor won Nearest the Pin on the AM Kuchel sponsored 11th green

After a hard day on the course Jan Murray chipped in off the edge of the 18th green to record a "Gobbler" and encourage her return to the game again next week.

Last Saturday Armani Marsters continued her good form in the Ladies Par competition recording a plus 2.

The Open Placegetters were Heather Fromm – plus 1, Cathy Thomas – minus 2 and Mary Langsford Jnr – minus 4.

Heather Fromm took out Nearest the Pin on the 4th hole.

Ellen Paech is leading the Golfer of the Year award on 26 points and should be able to hold this edge with nearest rival Sue Antel away on holidays. Ady Wright is also a contender, not far behind on 19.
