Murray Bridge Golf Club Women's Report Tuesday 27th Match

The Amcal Pharmacy Stableford Competition was played on Tuesday with the course in excellent condition providing a lot of run on the ball and the very slick greens kept players on their toes.

Kathy Pfeiffer continued her good form scoring 3 points on many holes and finishing the day with 37 points to be the Overall Winner. Kathy is also still holding first place in the Golfer of the Year award.

The Placegetters were Ady Wright with 31 points, "steady as she goes" Maureen Edwards also 31 points and Bev Magor, who is returning to form and very keen to reduce her handicap, came in with a 30 point card.

Sue Antel is back on the course attempting to play a few holes as she recovers from a broken wrist, and Liz Llewellyn is showing patches of improvement after scoring 3 points on 6 holes but nullifying her good work with 6 wipes.

The women are looking forward to the new golf pro, Steve Wilson, starting at the course and with the benefit of coaching see this reflected in their results.

Ellen Paech scored a Gobbler on the 4th hole to be the first to record her name on the Birdie/Gobbler board for the season.

Last Saturday's women played the Amcal Pharmacy Par round with Liz Hodge and Lyn Pitcher both coming in with plus 1 cards.

Robyn Teasdale was Nearest the Pin on the 11th hole.
