

Men's Weekly Golf Report –

Saturday - 7th April

YET ANOTHER WIN FOR CARLOS

Another Saturday..... another win for Carlos Taylor. His fourth in the past two months in fact. The young up and coming 20 handicapper took out the ON COURSE stroke event with a nett 64 to further stretch his already huge lead in the club's golfer of the year competition. He even managed to beat his playing partner and uncle Woody Morrison (a 9 handicapper) off the stick - there would have been no betting on that happening!

A grade - 65 Tony Carter 66 Daniel Gilmour.

B grade- 68 Graeme Munt 68 John Dewar.

C grade- 67 N.Millhouse 69 Les Duncan.

Placegetters - 69 Joe Marcus

69 Neville Briggs

69 Gary Hodge

69 Ken Parbs

69 Jeff Smith

70 Corey Dahlitz

70 Rob Muster

70 Fred Carter

70 Jeff Tubbenhauer

70 Shaun Williams

The Pro comp was won on a countback by Josh Laube with a great nett 29.5 back nine. Craig Hogben was unlucky to be beaten by a whisker. The eagles nest went off for the second week running when Woody Morrison chipped in for two on the 15th.

Roll up for a Stableford comp this Saturday.