

Murray Bridge Womens Golf Results

A successful Pink and Blue Ribbon Day was held on Tuesday with players from Mt Barker and Mannum joining the Murray Bridge women and men for a fun day of golf and fundraising for breast and prostate cancer. The players were all sporting their pink or blue outfits for the day.

Ady and Dean Wright, along with Maureen Edwards were the team winners scoring 34 Stableford points and were presented with medals by women's chairperson, Jill Morrell.

Mannum team players Lisa Hancock, Mary Underwood and Rosemary Freeman were the Runners-up scoring 33 points.

In the Individual Stableford competition Dean Wright took the men's honours with 33 points and Rob Walters was Runner-up also scoring 33 points. Wright also scooped the pool with a couple of Nearest the Pin prizes, and one or two raffle prizes so was rather a happy man at the end of the day.

The women's Individual Winner was Mannum player Sandra Dahlitz with 34 points and Mary Underwood, also of Mannum was Runner-up with 34 points.

It was also great to see Anne-Marie Kuchel return to the course and non-golfer Cheryl Aldridge take to the field.

Last Saturday the women competed in the Amcal Stableford competition.

Liz Hodge had a good round coming in with 37 points to be the day's winner, and Lyn Pitcher was Runner-up with 31 points.

The Ball Sweep recipients were Armani Marsters 30, Robyn Teasdale 28, Maureen Edwards 26 and Ellen Paech 25 points.

Due to the Pro-Am event next week the women and men's competitions will be played on Monday and Tuesday morning at 9.00 am will be a working bee.
