

Men's Weekly Golf Report –

Saturday - 13th March

ALTSCHWAGER BLITZ'S THE FIELD

Rain Glorious Rain !

Great to see our course getting a bit of refreshing rain on Saturday, which no doubt brought back a big ☺ smile on our ground-staff faces.

Probably not the opinion of those who unfortunately got caught mid-way through their round but as they say; it's a winter sport!

Regardless of the rain it didn't seem to put Brett Altschwager off his game in any shape or form as he carded a very sound 40 Stableford points to win the BRIDGE BUILDING SUPPLIES daily competition.

A Grade winner Matty Kowald carded a delightful 37 points to win on a countback from the "unluckiest golfer of all time" Damo Moloney, ☹ also on 37 points.

B Grade winner was Tyson Wright, a recently new member of the club, who carded a sound 36 points, one ahead of Lloyd 'buckets' Jackson on 35 points.

C Grade clear outright winner was the old 'tough-nut' veteran himself, Dean Wright, who carded a sound 37 points, 5 points better than his nearest rival Smilie Trinder on 32 points.

NTP's: 2nd Rob Walters, 4th Jeff Lipp, 6th Mario Grande, 11th Anthony Hutchins, 14th Gavin Sanderson & 17th Andrew Meddle. The Yabby went to Jeff Lipp & Pro Comp to Brett Altschwager, 22pts back 9.

Par Comp next Saturday and a reminder that next Friday 19th is closing day for the Rotary Ambrose nominations. (Rotary Ambrose Thu 25th March - $43,800 worth of prizes – WOW!)