

Men's Weekly Golf Report –
Saturday - 4th June

LEWIS WINS STROKE COMPETITION

In true winter conditions David Lewis won the LANGSFORDS PLASTERBOARD CO. Stroke competition on the weekend shooting an outstanding nett 65.

The "A" grade was taken out by visiting Aston Hills GC player Craig Eichler who scored an excellent nett 66 on the foreign course to see off local Steve Angove and his nett 67.

A few of our friends from Echunga are starting to appear in our fields as the incessant rain in the hills makes their course a bit sloppy. "B" grader Jeff Reuter excelled to win this division with a nett 68 as Ray Fetherstonhaugh was the runner up with a nett 70.

Jeff Smith was a big winner in "C" grade as his quality nett 67 saw a five shot gap to runner up Chris Peirce from Echunga GC.

"C" graders certainly found the going tough as not one of them could feature in the ball winners list. Brett Altschwager led up here with a neat 68 followed by Jarrod Petschel, Jared Thoman and Peter Erickson with 70's. Club Champion Aaron Zrim made his return after being crowned club king a fortnight ago and he played ok to score a nett 71. Lloyd "Buckets" Jackson, Mike Broadley, Michael Vella and Greg Schmidt featured with 72's.

Steve Angove won the Yabby on the 11th and "Buckets" Jackson finally cracked it for a Pro comp win after many countback defeats in recent years. His blazing nett 31 back nine showed his true capabilities but full round consistency is often his downfall.

A Stableford round is on the agenda for all this Saturday.