

WOMEN'S WEEKLY REPORT

Tue 9/7

Winter golf has well and truly arrived and the scores are varied and reflective of the weather conditions.

Saturday 6/7 was a Stroke round and the winner was Kathy Pfeiffer with a 76 nett. Mary Langsford was runner up with a 78 nett and in third place on the podium was Maureen Edwards with a 79 nett. Back from a Darwin holiday was Coral Smallbon who played in "holiday mode", not recording her best golf on the day.

Tuesday 9/7 was another Stroke round and on this occasion the winner was Rosemary Freeman with a very tidy 74 nett. Rosemary had a par on the 11th and 14th holes.

Maureen Edwards had one par on the 11th hole and Lisa Hancock was next best with nett 78. Lisa had pars on the 1st, 4th, 6th, on the front nine and pars on the 11th, 14th and 17th holes. Captain Lisa's card showed a very consistent display of 6 pars in her 94 stroke round.

In the past month we have seen a lot happening in the Australian Golf World. Min Woo Lee, Minjee Lee and Hannah Green will represent the green and gold at the upcoming Paris Olympics.
